

Having Part of You

VAST

You come into my sunrise
Just to sleep all day
You laugh when we are kissing
You laugh when I'm afraid
You're angry when I'm sweet
You're angry over nothing
And I'm trying to believe...trying to believe...

But having part of you
Will fill the whole of me
Let me loose myself
In the emptiness you bring
Getting half of you...it feels like everything

You come into my sunrise
Just to sleep all day
You laugh when we are kissing
You laugh when I'm afraid
I try to touch your face
Your angry over nothing
And I'm trying to believe...trying to believe...

But having part of you
Will fill the whole me
I always loose myself
In the emptiness you bring
And getting half of you...it feels like everything...
