I Don't Have Anything

I stood on mountaintops That overlooked the world I can't find anything Except a void inside I went to places where I could forget your name I can't find anything Except a void inside I don't have anything Because I don't have you I don't have anything What can I buy to make The sky turn blue again Where can I go to feel Like I'm alive again Show me the places Where I can forget your name I can't find anything Except a void inside I don't have anything Because I don't have you I don't have anything I've been stripped of everything Except some flesh that bleeds And I've been robbed of everything Except a soul, except a soul That needs...you, sweet you I don't have anything Because I don't have you I don't have anything
