

Skin Cage

VAST

To be closest
To be far away
I need desperately to be one with you
Smell of incense early morning light
We'll sleep all day then we'll go out at night
Trapped and I'm enslaved in this skin cage
Maybe in a dream
Maybe in a dream I will be one with you
To be closest to
To be far away
I need desperately to be one with you
Smell of incense early morning light
We'll sleep all day then we'll go out at night
Trapped and I'm enslaved in this skin cage
Maybe in a dream
Maybe in a dream I will be one with you
why, yeah why?
why, yeah
why, tell me, why?
