We Will Meet Again

Where have you gone My love, my friend Somewhere without the rain I feel afraid now, I feel alone Will we meet again

Can you recall what we once knew Somewhere without the pain I feel afraid now, but not alone We will meet again

I can't hear your voice But you know I feel your soul

I can't hear your voice But you know I feel your soul

Where have you gone My love, my friend Somewhere without any pain I'm not afraid now, I'm not alone We will meet again
