

Loving Ghosts

Vedera

I don't know how long I've been here the days all run together You're gone but you won't disappear Traces of you will last forever
It feels like...
If I hold my breath you'll walk in any second and tell me it was all a mistake, cant believe that you left an d
It haunts me to hold you this close but hurts me more to let go That's why I'm still loving ghosts They say I should get on with my life but I can't even get up I'd rather believe in this beautiful lie than admit you're really gone forever

Every sense is screaming every hair stands on my skin every room I feel it. You are here!
Baby I'm not seeing, but I'm still believing My heartbreak a chance worth taking so on this floor I'll still be waiting and OH...I feel you this close now

....I'm still loving ghosts now
