

Dark Passenger

Veil of Maya

I am in control [2x]

Judgment time has come

This world is mine, I'll mold it with my hands

Two trails lay before me, I know one as familiar as my senses (as my senses)

The other one preaches pain upon my mind, my eyesight extends

In my sights I have nothing, but guilt and deceit

They lay before me begging and willing for eternal mercy, for eternal mercy on their lives

Now's my time, this life is mine to make, complete

This choice is mine to take, receive

I am in control

Judgment time has come [4x]

Two trails,

Two trails lay before me I know one as my senses

The other preaches pain upon my soul

In my, in my sights I have nothing, but guilt and deceit

Begging me

Begging me

For eternal mercy
