

Headfoot

Venerea

how can you ask me that how can you even consider it from where i stand, i know you don't i know there's a million guys out there and i'm deeply flattered but i know why you're asking it doesn't really matter cause you wouldn't know romance if it came in your mouth cause you got no heart

you're a headfoot
thinking of legging it
yeah
you're a headfoot
you ain't got no heart

you think you're so daring but how can someone be brave when you've got nothing to lose to start with you don't need guts to flirt not the first, not the final kiss what takes courage is embracing what you know you'll miss you're not singled out you can't live without your pretty face ain't making pace

you're a headfoot

you're a headfoot
you got no heart

you're always legging it always running scared what if it was you who cared as for myself, i'm a curious child i know where i stand when i'm running wild got a place to start got a hungry heart i'm going out tonight i'll love out your lights you got no deal cause you got no feelings you just walk and talk you got no time for your guts and heart

headfoot

punk you
