

Mysterious Mike

Venerea

There's this guy I know He's been to some of our local shows
In bloody clothes
He's a psycho He's got this whim:
wants us to write a song about him
And simsalabim this is it

Mikey
Do it one more time for me Did they know when your head hit the cement, Mikey ?
Wowee
Do it one more time for me
Did they know how it set you free ?
Will they ever let you be ?

There he was a normal guy
just like you and me but when the music started he turned out to be a psycho He lives down the coast and this guy wouldn't boast But he's worth a toast
And a whole lot more

He's a mystery to me But I wish I could be like Mikey
Mike's a stagediver
I know it's true I've seen him black and blue sitting in an ambulance
He was so proud so proud
