Venetian Snares

I had a dream you were still alive
Playing Mozart records in the basement
And you whistled like you always did
When it hit your favorite part
I had a dream you were still alive
Like i could feel your stubble on my face
When you kissed me goodnight
And we'd do our special signal together
I had a dream you were still alive
I had a dream you were still alive

Wearing a brown black shirt
Wearing a brown black shirt
Wearing a brown black shirt
Wearing a brown black shirt
Wearing a brown black shirt
