

Naughty Elegy

Venin Noir

distressful decisions take charge of thee the ones who deny to dare and measure the risk passive suicide fight for the dimmest kind praising to pleasure, immunizing my mind

I embraced so many oceans I defeated darker storms I have scorned your beliefs I wilt not live through this nourished by lies, chains that vindicate thou took back on what was consummate hemispheres collide and mists refuse to roam in the void is for the obtuse bear the denial of the naughty elegy damn the unborn and adore who flee you shall see that I dwell in a nightmare red stained furious eyes unable to stare
