Cursed

Venom

From the Golden seat of Ramses to the ending of the sacred Nile The pharaohs of this ancient land the deserts cross countless ${\tt m}$ iles

Inside the labyrinth where buried is the king his waiting maids countless gifts lie within

Mumified entombed the ancient scroll left to rot brain heart an d soul

As they walk through the passages of endless night using sparse ly the candles as their only light

Living only on the storages of food they brought no escape live to die becomes their only thought

Cursed buried deep inside the pyramid king Tutankhamun Cursed where this grave is their only thing Kking Tutankhamun As the years begin to close and food to nourish sparse insanity starts to reign to flourish in the dark

As they walk through the passages of endless time using sparsel y the candles as their only light

Living only on the storages of food they brought no escape live to die becomes their only thought

Cursed buried deep inside the pyramid king Tutankhamun
Cursed where this grave is their only thing king Tutankhamun
And as they walk through the passages of endless night
Drawing nearer to the last nothing left inside the tomb
Except the braindead plight lost in histories of the past
Cursed buried deep inside the pyramid king Tuankhamun
Cursed where his grave is the only thing king Tutankhamun
Cursed buried deep inside the pyramid king buried deep inside the pyramid

Cursed buried deep inside the pyramid king buried deep inside the pyramid