

Bone Yard

Vermillion Lies

I'll be black as coal
I'll be cold as steel I'll be all the things you never wanted to feel

I'll be deepest pit
I'll be biggest fear
I'll be all the things
you never wanted to hear

I'll be far from home
I'll be without light
I'll be all the things
that come out and scare you at night and I'll be kissing you

in the bone yard
in the bone yard

I'll take off all my skin just to let you in you'll see my big black mess my aching emptiness

you'll never fill me no matter how long you try you'll just get lost
inside

you'll lose those perfect eyes lose that perfect mouth and just like me you'll be a pile of bones

in the bone yard
