

Found Myself

Vermillion Lies

This is a sing along!lyricsi've been gone for a long time baby
i've been following you i've been hanging on all of your words saying i'll always be true but today i found myself

up on that shelf
right where you put me
away

i've been gone for a long time darling or that's the way it seems i thought i could make you happy by giving up my dreams

(bbq grill solo!)

i've been gone for a long time sugar
