

I Should Fly

Vermillion Lies

“... I’ve been thinking for a while
That I should fly

Tired of walking on my feet
They’re so tired
They’re so tired

The branches are low
And the ground is hard
And the view much nicer from the sky

From up in the sky they’re just people
But from here, they’re
Liars, cheaters and thieves

From up in the sky they’re just people
But from here, they’re
Liars, cheaters and thieves

I’ve been thinking for a while
That I should fly ...”
