

Monkey

Vermillion Lies

love is an organ grinder's monkey on a three day bender behind the wheel of a truck he's driving down the road with no shirt on and he's flipping you the finger he's got a bottle full of bloody guts and a shotgun full of stardust

and love will shoot you down love's no pretty thing, no starry eyes love won't hold your hand or tuck you in for the night love will swallow you whole and pick his teeth with your bones and when he's done he'll spit you out and leave you to clean the mess that he's made of your heart

and in the dark and in the light and when the moment's feeling right you'll see the sounds and hear the sights and you'll be love's monkey in no time he'll shoot you down

oh you stupid little monkey love shot you down
