

More and More

Vermillion Lies

You can have my keys
If i can have your heart
You can sleep on my couch
If I can sleep on top of you

Oh you
You can have everything you need
Oh you
You can have everything
You can have everything and more

You can be my carpet
And I'll be your floor
I'll be your music
If you play me like a guitar

Oh you
You can do everything to me
Oh you
You can do everything
You can do everything and more

If I was a sonnet
I'd be fifteen lines long
If I was a pop quiz
I'd have ninety percent of my answers wrong
But you
You're always right about everything
Oh you
You're right about everything all the time and more

You can use my toilet
If you promise to flush
You can help me write this song
I'm not asking for much
Oh we
We can have everything we need
Oh we
We can have everything
We can have everything and more and more and more...
