More and More

Vermillion Lies

You can have my keys If i can have your heart You can sleep on my couch If I can sleep on top of you

Oh you You can have everything you need Oh you You can have everything You can have everything and more

You can be my carpet And I'll be your floor I'll be your music If you play me like a guitar

Oh you You can do everything to me Oh you You can do everything You can do everything and more

If I was a sonnet
I'd be fifteen lines long
If I was a pop quiz
I'd have ninety percent of my answers wrong
But you
You're always right about everything
Oh you
You're right about everything all the time and more

You can use my toilet If you promise to flush You can help me write this song I'm not asking for much Oh we We can have everything we need Oh we We can have everything We can have everything We can have everything and more and more...
