

No Good

Vermillion Lies

I never promised you anything somehow I'm the bad guy in the end...
You wanted it out of me
I'm not gonna give you anything
I'm no good anyway....

I passed my exploration day if you look my ingredients you'll find you are allergic to me.
I don't wish myself on you
I'm all bad news
I'd be no good to you

You should know me better
after what I told you
I told you to be careful
but you ignored all my warnings...

I liked you yesterday but today is a brand new day so excuse me but I think I told you in so many word I'm not your thing (?)...

I don't wish myself on you
I'm all bad news
I'd be no good to you

You should know me better
after what I told you
I told you to be careful
but you ignored all my warnings...

Uh....
