

Take Off Your Shirt

Vermillion Lies

if you kiss me on the cheek my dear, for our love the end is near if you kiss me on the mouth my darling, i could love you til the morning, if you open your pretty little lips, i could love you for a little bit, if you take off your pretty little shirt and come over here,
i could love you for a year, we could have kids and a cute little home, if you let me make you moan, you could drive my car one day, if you scream my name,
we could stay together all our lives, if you hold me between your thighs, if you just stay with me tonight
