

This Town

Vermillion Lies

There's a way to find my way,
That's what they, or so they said
There's a light I've never seen
It's up a hill, that's what they tell me

Don't let go and don't look down
Don't you walk in on this town
Don't you yell and don't you scream
You're gonna break apart this fragile dream, dream

I could walk out on my shoes
I could sing the blues
I could laugh with you
I could stay 100 years, touch your face, taste your tears

Don't you yell and don't you scream
Don't you walk out on your dreams
Don't let go and don't look down
You're gonna break apart this fragile town, town

And when you're aching in All the things you are, all the things you've been
You can take all the old cliches
You can put them to a tune,
You'll make money that way

I won't look down, I won't let go
I won't stay too fast, I won't go too slow
I won't scream, no, I won't yell
I wanna go to heaven, but this is hell, hell
This town, this town
This town, this town
