

Singer Of Sad Songs

Vern Gosdin

Singer of sad songs you sure know how to hurt
You couldn't be a deeper shade of blue
You must have loved a woman that treated you like dirt
Singer of sad songs, did you know her too?

Somehow I get the feeling you lived the words your singing
You said what I've been thinking all along
The tear drops and the laughter, it all sounds so familiar
The things I'd like to tell her if I could write song.

Singer of sad songs, did you know her too?
