

Hoping high in the midnight craze
The daze I wait I felt something for you
Try to make it stop
My thoughts they all crisscross
They melt into your

Fire flesh, it burns me like an insect
But I contemplate it
Never cared

I can't hold, I can't hold it in

I want you to rest those bones over me
I get to know where do you go
Whenever I need you the most
I want you to rest those bones over me

I don't know you like I should
Been waiting, wishing for the time I could
See the smoke, know you're around
I won't put you out cuz I know your

Fire flesh, it burns me like an insect
But I contemplate it
Never cared

I can't hold it, I can't hold it in

I want you to rest those bones over me
I get to know where do you go
Whenever I need you the most
I want you to rest those bones over me

Fire flesh, it burns me like an insect
Fire flesh, it burns me like an insect

I get to know where do you go
Whenever I need you the most

I want you to rest those bones over me
I get to know where do you go
Whenever I need you the most
I want you to rest those bones over me

I want you to rest those bones over me
I want you to rest those bones over me
