

Domesticated

VersaEmerge

If you ever let me go I'll run as far, and right past, the sun.
My eyes are drawn like curtains,
Reveals how long that I've been hurting.
(Stop looking for me, stop looking for me)
You'll never see me cry
Not even when I die
I don't have the time
(Stop looking for me, stop looking for me)

I'm not done living in a world of experimentin'
Wanna make friends with the self destructing
I'm not meant to be your domesticated girl

It's hard for you to look at me
As something more than just your property.
Stealing all my attention,
You keep me from the world I'm missing.
(Stop looking for me, stop looking for me)
When will you realize that every single lie
is all in your mind?
(Stop looking for me, stop looking for me)

I'm not done living in a world of experimentin'
Wanna make friends with the self destructing
I'm not meant to be your domesticated girl

Just untie the chains that break and bind me
Give me all your praise, give me all your blessings
I'm not meant to be your domesticated girl

I'm not done living in a world of experimentin'
Wanna make friends with the self destructing
I'm not meant to be your domesticated girl

Just untie the chains that break and bind me
Give me all your praise, give me all your blessings
I'm not meant to be your domesticated girl
