

Mind Reader

VersaEmerge

Hey, mind reader.
You know what I feel
Before I speak
It always seems you gotta one up me
Have a worse for me is that what you need
I've got it all and you've got nothing

Hey, Mind reader
Bet you didn't see this one coming
'Cause your eyes are never open
I've said sorry, you just mock me
And I'm ready to throw this up and away

I'm not able able to say

Don't let me get away
I haven't been honest either
We could use each other
Don't let me get away
It's not getting any better
We could use each other

(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)

Hey, mind reader
Just as soon as I leave the room
My stomach drops, my guts I lose
I'm not the type to follow through
But you already knew that, didn't you?

Hey, mind reader
Quick steps, reality check
I might be gone before you're back
You bite your nails at the thought of that Just tell me off, and let me hear you say

Are you able able to stay

Don't let me get away
I haven't been honest either
We could use each other
Don't let me get away
It's not getting any better
We could use each other

(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)

Start speaking your mind reading
You can't keep me out, believe it
Start speaking say what we mean

No lies tucked in between our teeth

(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)
(Don't let me get away)

Don't let me get away
(Don't let me get away)
Don't let me get away

Don't let me get away
I haven't been honest either
We could use each other
Don't let me get away
It's not getting any better
We could use each other

(Don't let me get away)
Don't let me get away
We could use each other
(Don't let me get away)
Don't let me get away

Hey, mind reader
