

I Believe In You

Vertical Horizon

You're only broken on the outside.
You're shivering but the warmth will come back.
It's hard to see beyond hindsight,
When all regrets fade in from black.

Did the promise of day turn cold in the night?
You are the light.
All you have is your name but the air is alive.
You are the light.

I believe in you.
I believe in you.

It's always hardest when you doubt it.
It's out of sight, it hides from your voice.
But you can never live without it,
It's your birthright, this beautiful noise.

Are you burning the days just to get through the nights?
You are the light.
All you have is your name but the air is alive.
You are the light.

I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe in you.

If the years blow away to just sand and rain,
We will still find a place cause love breaks through.

I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe in you.
I believe,
I believe in you.
