

I'm Gonna Save You

Vertical Horizon

Looking up on star fields tonight
Wide awake by the candle light
Never held like this before
Never felt like this before tonight
Before tonight

As the truth dawns across your quiet face
Take a breath just to see what it takes
Never cared like this before
Never dared like this before tonight
Before tonight

Yeah whatever may come, whatever may go
No one can stop this, nobody knows
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
Yeah whatever you've done, whatever your crime
No one can catch you now that you're mine
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
I'm gonna save you, whoa
I'm gonna save you, whoa

When the day breaks we'll head for the sea
And perhaps we'll begin to believe
We'll make a damn fine show of it
We'll get it gone so go with it tonight
Yeah, come with me tonight

Yeah whatever may come, whatever may go
No one can stop this, nobody knows
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
Yeah whatever you've done, whatever your crime
No one can catch you now that you're mine
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
I'm gonna save you, whoa
I'm gonna save you, whoa

You are safe within this light
You're safe within, you're safe within
You are safe within this light
This light, this light

Yeah whatever may come, whatever may go
No one can stop this, nobody knows
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
Yeah whatever you've done, whatever your crime
No one can catch you now that you're mine
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
I'm gonna save you, whoa
I'm gonna save you, whoa

So maybe this is the way we begin
Let our names fade away into the wind

Yeah whatever may come, whatever may go
No one can stop this, nobody knows
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
Yeah whatever you've done, whatever your crime

No one can catch you now that you're mine
Whatever... I'm gonna save you
I'm gonna save you, whoa
I'm gonna save you, whoa
