

Lighthouse

Vertical Horizon

A touch, a dream, I wanna believe again
So far away, so much safer then
I can't be erased, I can't replace the truth
And I can't wash this stain, I'm honestly trying to

Ooh, my eyes are hurting
I've been searching
For a lighthouse
Ooh, in all this darkness
Just when it's hardest
A lighthouse

A sound, a voice, a distant hope released
A haze, a maze, a solitary piece
I won't discern, I can't return there
To that farthest land, I've gotta begin again here

Ooh, my eyes are hurting
I've been searching
For a lighthouse
Ooh, in all this darkness
Just when it's hardest
A lighthouse
Ooh, I tried believing
I keep dreaming
Of a lighthouse
Ooh, my eyes are hurting
I keep searching
For a lighthouse

It's leaving time, I need to go
I can't rest here tonight, I can't remember why
It's getting dark, it's getting cold
I really need the light, I can't remember why

It's leaving time, I need to go
I can't rest here tonight, I can't remember why
It's getting dark, it's getting cold
I really need the light, I can't remember why

Ooh, my eyes are hurting
I've been searching
For a lighthouse
Ooh, in all this darkness
Just when it's hardest
A lighthouse
Ooh, I tried believing
I keep dreaming
Of a lighthouse
Ooh, my eyes are hurting
I keep searching
For a lighthouse

(It's leaving time, I need to go)
Ooh, my eyes are hurting
(I can't rest here tonight, I can't remember why)
I've been searching

For a lighthouse
(It's getting dark, it's getting cold)
Ooh, in all this darkness
(I really need the light, I can't remember why)
Just when it's hardest
A lighthouse
(It's leaving time, I need to go)
Ooh, I tried believing
(I can't rest here tonight, I can't remember why)
I keep dreaming
Of a lighthouse
(It's getting dark, it's getting cold)
Ooh, my eyes are hurting
(I really need the light, I can't remember why)
I keep searching
For a lighthouse
