

Sleeper Car

Veruca Salt

Bright you are
Bigger than the both of us
Though I'm a star
I can't burn that bright
Tiger car
Swerving forward into us
Now here we are

Sleeper car
Now you're backing into me
Oh, where you are
Feels good for now
Although my arms
Ache harder than they ever have
You drive so far

Sleeper car
Now you're backing into me
Oh, where you are
Feels good for now
Sleeper car
Now you're backing into me
Now you're backing into me
Now you're backing into me

Sleeper car
Now you're backing into me
Oh, where you are
Feels good for now
Although my arms
Ache harder than they ever have
You drive so far, yeah
You drive so far
You drive so hard
You drive so hard
