

Used to Know Her

Veruca Salt

I used to know her, I used to talk about her
Waiting for the day that she would listen
I used to know her, I used to stick up for her
Something in her smile was so bitchin'

I used to sing, I used to sing

I used to know her - used to know all about her
I used to need her - there was something about her
I used to torture her - it's the best way around her
I used to know her - now it just doesn't matter, oh yeah
Oh yeah

I used to fuck him, I used to simplify him
Something in his walk was like Jim Morrison
I used to touch him, I used to justify him
Lying to my face with my permission.

I used to sing, I used to sing

I used to fuck him - used to fucking love him
I used to need him - now I read all about him
I used to touch him - now I could never kiss him
I used to love him - now I don't even miss him, oh yeah
Oh yeah, oh yeah
oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah

I used to know her - I used to terrify her
I used to terrify her, I used to terrify her
I used to sing, we used to sing

I used to know her - used to know all about her
I used to need her - there was something about her
I used to torture her - it's the best way around her
I used to know her - now she just doesn't matter, oh yeah
She just doesn't matter, oh yeah
