Everybody seems to know when he's around He lifts me up and fades without a sound Mr. Sun won't you shine?
Mr. Sun won't you shine?

Why he's here I will never know He makes you know you feel Like somewhere to go

Mr. Sun won't you shine?
Mr. Sun just you shine

Walking with a man called Sun I think my journey's just begun Do you think he'll mind?

He lifts you up he shines And then he's gone But you know you need him More when he's gone

Mr. Sun just shine Mr. Sun just shine

Walking with a man called Sun I think my journey's just begun Do you think he'll mind?

Shine...
Shine...
Shine...
Let it shine...
