

Echo Bass

The Verve

In the beds of a million homes
Lie the broken hearted
In the rooms in a million houses
Die the broken hearted
Tell me why, I just started.

In the bridges, in the arches
Lie the broken hearted
In the bridges, in the arches
Die the broken hearted
Tell me why, I just started.

Maybe we're gonna take ya
Maybe we're gonna take ya (maybe you save me)
Maybe we're gonna take ya (babe you save me)
Maybe we're gonna take ya (yeh you save me)

In the subway when you walk home
All those lonely names
Some have long gone
In the bridges, in the arches
Where I lie, broken hearted.

Maybe we're gonna take ya
Maybe we're gonna take ya (maybe you save me)
Maybe we're gonna take ya (babe you save me)
Maybe we're gonna take ya (yeh you save me)

You gotta go now
You gotta go now (maybe we're gonna take ya)

Oh no, no, no
Don't let me down again now now
Oh no, no, no (maybe you save me)
Don't let me down again now now (babe you save me)
Oh no, no, no (yeah you save me)
Don't let me down again now now

You gotta go now (maybe we're gonna take ya)
