Can You See Anything?

Can you see anything My vision is blured out somehow Can you see anything The dark is hiding things

You have to stay here for the night I can`t be on my own tonight

You are my eyes and ears Without you I can`t see in here You are my blood and vains Without you I would die in here