

Listen closely
Do you hear this train blow
Louder, louder
We're getting closer to home
I'm trying to find this
I'm trying to look for the good
In all of these humans its getting less than it should

Listen closely
Do you hear this train blow
Louder, louder
We're getting closer to home
And if you hear this
Yes, today you've been touched
Its time to make your difference
Its time to make love

Cause I could be a boxer
Or I could be your friend
Or I'll just be the reason that your here

We keep it simple
But I won't lose this sight
Yeah do what is right for you and I'll do my right
I know your laughing
I know your smiling inside
Just empty your pain, your worries and I'll empty mine

Cause I could be a boxer
I could be your friend
But I'll just be the reason that you keep coming back, you keep
Yeah, I could be a boxer
Or I could be your friend
But I'll just be the reason that your here
