

Maeflower

Vicci Martinez

Regardless of what I say
And regardless of what I do
Yeah my words, my thoughts, my breath, my soul yeah baby
They all belong to you

And I liken you to an angel
Yeah your wings, your spirit in the sky
You keep bringing me life
And your bringing me love
Its your smile on my sunshine

And your beauty is overflowing
And your smile never fades
You shine through day you shine through midnight skies
Sweet Maeflower, woah
Now won't you dance away

And your skin it melts into my skin
And my hands across your face they glide
Its your warmth, its your comfort, yeah embracing my soul
Its one kiss, one kiss to stay alive
So green the grass
And so crisp the air
Our path, our path begins to cross

My hand in yours
And your hand in mine
I will never let you go

And your beauty is overflowing
And your smile never fades
You shine through day, you shine through midnight skies
Sweet maeflower, woah
Now wont you dance away

And your beauty is overflowing
And your smile never fades
You shine through days you shine through midnight skies
Sweet Maeflower

And your beauty is overflowing
And your smile never fades
No your smile never fades
Shine through my day, through my midnight sky
Oh yeah sweet Mae
Wont you pretty please, won't you dance away
