

Nothing Else Matters

Vicci Martinez

Sometimes it seems to hard to handle
Sometimes I think I've had enough
They told me life it isn't easy
The road ahead is gonna get rough
To dwell on pain makes you sink lower
To keep on crying makes you weak
Overcoming all your sorrows
Loves the only thing you'll need

Nothing else matters
True love will keep you smiling
Keeps you at your highest peak
Nothing else matters
Sometimes it will get harder
Love will keep you on your feet

There may not be a clear solution
Answers may not come at first
Clear your mind and keep it simple
Remember others have it worse
Live everyday like its your last one
Enjoy the flowers and summer breeze
Because life is precious
Life is too short
To spend it crying on bended knee

Nothing else matters
True love will keep you smiling
Keeps you at your highest peak
Nothing else matters
Sometimes it will get harder
But love will keep you on your feet

So when it seems too hard to handle
When it seems you've had enough
Its up to you to make it easy
Surround yourself with ones you love

Nothing else matters
True love will keep you smiling
It keeps you at your highest, keeps you at your highest
Love is all you need
Sometimes it will get harder
But love will keep you on your feet
Love is all you need
Nothing else matters

Love is all you need
Love is all you need
Nothing else matters
I said love is all you need
