

Perfect Soul

Vicci Martinez

I've learning what I have to say
Cause through your ears I want perfection
Now I have to say
I save these stories
I'll take them to my grave

You are a perfect soul
And you don't deserve this devastation
Just let me keep you warm
Don't ask any more questions

I've learning what I have to say
Cause through your ears I want perfection
Now I have nothing to say
I save these stories
I'll take them to my grave

You are a perfect soul
You don't deserve this devastation
Just let me keep you warm
Don't ask any more questions

I've learning what I have to say
Cause through your ears I want perfection
Now I have nothing to say

I save these stories
I'll take them to my grave

You are a perfect soul
And you don't deserve this devastation
Just let me keep you warm
Don't ask any more questions

You are a perfect soul
You are a perfect soul
