

Back in the Cage

Vice Squad

Tell me to compromise and force my face to fit listen to the ones who only write about it

You make me feel like a caged animal when I want to get away you fuck me over when I fight for a future won't forget about yesterday

I know you can't define the indefinable stand still and I'll be commercially viable

You make me feel like a caged animal
won't forget about yesterday I have to work so hard for survival to keep my integrity you make me part of another revival no way forward, no sincerity

Cut- cut- cut me down to the size I should be while you live in the past looking for a parody
