

Freedom Begins at Home

Vice Squad

Fighting against two enemies
One's commercial, one's pretence
Play me off against each other
Self-belief's my only defence

Big or small, they're all the same
All out wheeling and dealing
Playing the money making game
Unaffected by our feelings

I won't be hurt by either side
I'd rather be alone
I'll make you listen somehow

Freedom begins at home
Freedom begins at home
Founded on resentment

A few more envious lies
I won't be crushed by any of you
Or cast my principles aside
We've learnt things you don't yet know
I'll make you see you were wrong
In time, I'll develop and grow
The tune might change but not the song
