No You Don't

Vice Squad

They've got constipated minds Straight and narrow vision Sign here on the dotted line 'Cause money is their mission

No you don't You don't have to listen No you don't To the media hype No you don't No criticism No you don't From a stereotype

Take their advice and you can be A pale imitation Make your life a misery Of failure and frustration

All these years and you've achieved Anonymous rejection Too many people getting off On your dissatisfaction

Nobody needs it if it's bitter and twisted They make you believe it that your chances were wasted They tell you it's over, you already missed it This ain't no way to live
