superficial people

Vice Squad

She cut her hair in the latest style 'though it did not suit her face it got her one condescending smile put her right back in her place

Why be a blank page in an open book come judgement day it won't matter how you look

We're superficial people modern and modified we're superficial people gift wrapped garbage cut and dried

He got the cash and the arrogance yeah he even sold his soul can't measure up to what they want 'cause they always move the goal

Why be a wage slave to factory or firm come dying day it won't matter what you earn

We're superficial people stunted and stupefied we're superficial people blackmailed, bribed and beautified

It's all designed to keep you down though you think that you're content spend your life waiting in a queue but you never reach the end..
