War of Attrition

Vice Squad

Brand new soldier, naive martyr Far from home, in the sun, in the sun Life's non-starter, you need the dollar They're gonna arm you, with a gun or a bomb

Blood lust sacrifice, another suicide You think you're gonna get to paradise

War! War! War! War of attrition War! War! War! A world wide mission

Warring nations indoctrination Perverse religions all around, all around No incarnation, no virgin harem No way to heaven from the ground, going down

You never learn, you never learn
