

Farewell

Vickie Winans

Farewell i'll miss you
Never forget you
Someday we'll meet again and
Farewell will be no more

Reaching the lost
No matter the cost
Is my hearts desire

Time soon will come
When all work is done
And i'll have to say

Now i hope you have learnd
That love can't be earned
But shared amongst each other
In your hearts i will stay
Until that great day
When i shall return
But until then

Farewell for now my love
I have to go away
Don't be afraid my love
I'm near, i'm always there
