

Work

Victims Family

Hidden in offices without a clue
That you're working for them
Not really for you
They've cleverly priced
Everything you need
Working's a must there's a family to feed
Life is expensive
You must earn your stay
God our creator really wants it this way
No...
Choices...
Left...
This is the world they've made for you
They've really come up with the ultimate scam
You're working away for their new trans ams
Work's just another piece of big brother
Designed to take up all your time
Time you could spend
Putting them to an end
Instead of them robbing you blind
