

Back To India

Victor Wooten

There's times I lay and close my eyes
There's a pull I feel that I cannot describe
It's from the past, inside my soul
It makes me yearn for things of which I did not know
And it shows in my life, 'cause I'm intrigued so much at times
I cry
And I know this inside, it's from the ancient days of old full of stories to be told

Take me back to India. I wanna go 'cause I wanna know
So, take me back to India. I wanna go 'cause I wanna know

Take me there and let me be, let me learn the keys of harmony
I know I'm blind so let me see who the man is that I'm supposed to be
And I'll find a love that aims to take me to a plce above Where I am right now, I need to go back there some way some how I need to go back

Take me back to India. I wanna go 'cause I wanna know
So, take me back to India. I wanna go 'cause I wanna know

I don't really know what I mean, but I can tell U what I see When I'm lying in between sleep and awake let me tell U what I'm talking 'bout
