

Go Girl Go

Victor Wooten

Go girl go. U're free now. Free of the ties, the ties that bind

Go girl go. Free at last to blast away the darker side into blinding white.

Go girl Go. U're free now. U're free now.

Cut straight on through my nature's child to the things that really matter.

Your song is u. Something to listen to.

Cut straight on through my nature's child,

To the things that really matter. (my nature's child)

This song is u. It's the call of the wild.

Above the noise, go girl go.

An inner voice will cheer u on. Go girl go.

And in your mind, when u step across that line,

So far ahead of the pack with the wind at your back,

Go girl go. U're free now. (Go!)

Keep running toward the sun. Go girl go.

Your race has just begun.

Go girl go. U're free now. Free of the ties, the ties that bind

Go girl Go. Free at last.

Cut straight on through my nature's child to the things that really matter.

Go girl go. U're free now!
