

2 Become 1

Victoria Duffield

You hear about it all day on the radio
You see it out there no matter where you go
People laughing and smiling and making plans
Is that what they call love?

And then one day, it hit me like a tidal wave
And took my breath away
Now I'm laughing and smiling and making plans
I think this might be love

You only get one chance to find your greatest love
And it feels like you're the only one

I can't explain how less is more
But when you add it up
Your heart gets bigger
Two become one, two become one

I never thought it would be just like on a movie screen
I never really believed in happy endings
People kissing and crying and holding hands
I guess this must be love

Because one day, you hit me like a tidal wave
And took my breath away
Now we're kissing and crying and holding hands
I don't wanna' give this up

You only get one chance to find your greatest love
And it feels like you're the only one

I can't explain how less is more
But when you add it up
Your heart gets bigger
Two become one, two become one

Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah

You only get one chance to find your greatest love
And it feels like you're the only one

I can't explain how less is more
But when you add it up
Your heart gets bigger
Two become one, two become one
(2x)

Woah, woah, woah
Woah, woah, woah

You hear about it all day on the radio
You see it out there, no matter where you go
People laughing and smiling and making plans
Is that what they call love?
