

Paper Planes

Victoria Duffield

Dare, dare you,
I dare to you free fall.
With open eyes,
eyes open wide.
Love, it's a one,
it's a one in the million.
So let's catch this ride,
bring this to life.

Cause I got what you want,
you want what I want,
no point to moving slow.
Well run through the fire,
keep climbing higher up.

Baby hold your hands out,
jump from the Hollywood sign now.
I know that if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
We won't crash down,
air underneath our wings now.
I know that if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
We can fly, you and I
Oh, if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.

Would stay in your arms
for tonight, til forever.
When the night gets cold,
I'll keep your warm.
Oh, we don't need to know where we're headed.
We're gonna take to turns,
we're gonna cut the curves.

Cause I got what you want,
you want what I want,
no point to moving slow.
Well run through the fire,
keep climbing higher up.

Baby hold your hands out,
jump from the Hollywood sign now.
I know that if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
We won't crash down,
air underneath our wings now.
I know that if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
We can fly, you and I
Oh, if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.

And we won't crash down,
no we won't crash down.
Even when the lights burnt out.

I know that we're gonna land with our hearts in hand, oh

Oh, oh, oh, oh ,oh
(paper planes can fly...)

Baby hold your hands out,
jump from the Hollywood sign now.
I know that if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
We won't crash down,
air underneath our wings now.
I know that if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
We can fly, you and I
Oh, if paper planes can fly,
so can you and I.
