

For the Last Time

Vince Gill

One look, one kiss
Just a few words
Showed me such kindness

Your eyes really see me
Not for what I've been
But for who I am and what could be

How did you know, I was waiting?
How did you know, you were saving me?
Oh, what a gift to leave it all behind
Lonely has known me for the last time

This love is forever
It won't be taken
For granted, not ever

How did you know, I was waiting?
How did you know, you were saving me?
Oh, what a gift to leave it all behind
Lonely has known me for the last time

How did you know, I was waiting?
How did you know, you were saving me?
Oh, what a gift to leave it all behind
Lonely has known me for the last time
Lonely has known me for the last time
