

The Sight of Me Without You

Vince Gill

I can't believe I am watching our love ending
I wonder just how long you've been pretending?
Pretending that our love was what you wanted
While you were out there finding someone new
Well, these days I don't dare look in the mirror
'Cause I can hardly stand the sight of me without you

My broken heart might need a little mending
And I lie here in the dark still remembering
Remembering when we were so good together
I've become a perfect image of a fool
Oh, the picture of my future is getting clearer
And I can hardly stand the sight of me without you

Oh, the picture of my future is getting clearer
And I can hardly stand the sight of me without you
Oh, the picture of my future is getting clearer
And I can hardly stand the sight of me without you
