

Look In Her Eyes

Vince Neil

They told him not to wander
They told him not to stray
Listen to the warnings
Never lose the light of day

There's danger in the darkness
And death's not what they say
Thunderclouds are rolling in
Trouble's on the way

But you can feel excitement in your veins
No holding back till you stake you claim

Surprise disguise better run now you realize
The kiss abyss knowing that you can't resist
The thrill, the kill, and you know that it's over

With a look in her eyes

An ocean of temptation
With every drop of wine
Shadows meeting face to face
The tentacles entwine
One look from the jezebel
Phony valentine
Now you see the wanderer
Frozen in the corridors of time

But you can feel excitement in your veins
No holding back till you stake you claim

Surprise disguise better run now you realize
The kiss abyss knowing that you can't resist
The thrill, the kill, and you know that it's over
